49th Annual Wake County Parade of Homes Winners Announced

Raleigh, N.C. - Winners of the 49th Annual Parade of Homes, presented by the Home Builders Association of Raleigh–Wake County (HBA), were announced during the Awards Show Tuesday evening, October 14, at the North Raleigh Hilton. Over 700 builders and guests attended the gala as awards were presented across 18 categories.

“Thanks to all the builders who entered homes in the Parade,” said Cindy Y. Sheldon, an executive with Triad and Triangle Division for D.R. Horton and the chair of the 2014 Wake County Parade of Homes. “We judged 144 this year of the 187 entries, and we’re hearing that traffic has been fantastic at each home on the tour.”

Parade homes were judged prior to the first open house weekend and winners were selected for Gold, Silver & Bronze Awards for the 1st, 2nd & 3rd places in each category. Some homes in the parade were not judged because they were either incomplete or sold.

This year, there are 187 homes featured in the Wake County Parade ranging in price from $175,000- $1.5 million.
